

Yankwitt & McGuire, LLP Announces Name Change and Adds Two New Partners

I am thrilled to announce that Kathy S. Marks and Dina L. Hamerman have become partners of the Firm.

Kathy and I started working together in 2001 in the United States Attorney's Office in the Southern District of New York. Kathy is a graduate of Georgetown University Law Center. Before joining the Firm, Kathy served as a deputy appellate chief in the United States Attorney's Office, Counsel for the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit of the N.Y.S. Attorney General's Office, and worked at Morvillo Abramowitz Grand Iason & Anello, P.C.

Dina joined the Firm in 2010 after working for many years in the litigation department of Debevoise & Plimpton LLP. Dina is a James Kent and Harlan Fiske Stone graduate of Columbia Law School, and a former federal law clerk in both the District of New Jersey and the Third Circuit Court of Appeals.

The Firm wants to thank Harold F. ("Skip") McGuire, Jr. for his hard work and dedication over the past three years. Skip has left the Firm to practice law with his son and has become of counsel to his son's law firm. We wish Skip and his son great success in their new endeavor.

With Kathy and Dina becoming partners, we will rename the Firm "Yankwitt LLP". Our web address will remain www.yankwitt.com and our office address will continue to be in the heart of White Plains and steps from the federal and state courthouses. We will also continue to strive to provide the best legal representation that can be found in any major metropolitan area with the convenience (and pricing) of Westchester County.

Finally, we would like to thank our friends, clients, and wonderful colleagues who helped grow our firm into one of the leading litigation firms in Westchester County in just four years.

We look forward to serving you for many more years to come.

Russell M. Yankwitt
