

Yankwitt LLP Expands its Federal Practice, Adding a Former Federal Law Clerk

Yankwitt LLP is pleased to announce that Alicia Tallbe has joined the firm's White Plains office as Counsel.

Alicia brings to Yankwitt LLP a wealth of experience in complex commercial litigation that she acquired working at New York City law firms, Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler LLP and Shearman & Sterling LLP. She also spent more than two years clerking in the federal courthouse in White Plains for the Honorable Kenneth M. Karas and for the Honorable Cathy Seibel of the Southern District of New York.

Alicia earned her J.D. degree from St. John's University School of Law, where she graduated number one in her class.

Yankwitt LLP is pleased to welcome Alicia to the firm, and we encourage you to reach out to her or any of our other attorneys for assistance with your legal needs. More information about our practice and Alicia's background is available on the firm website.

Yankwitt LLP is an elite trial and litigation firm located in White Plains, New York. Our New York lawyers are prominent members of the Westchester and New York City bars, who utilize their broad experience and expertise to produce exceptional outcomes for our clients. All of our New York lawyers are former federal law clerks or prosecutors, or both.
