

Yankwitt LLP Hires Another Former S.D.N.Y. Law Clerk

Yankwitt LLP is pleased to announce that Cassandra Vogel has joined the firm's White Plains office as Counsel.

With the hiring of Cassandra, who clerked for the Honorable Nelson S. Román in the White Plains courthouse of the Southern District of New York, Yankwitt LLP now has the distinction of being the only firm in the State to have a former law clerk from each active federal District Judge in White Plains.

Cassandra has experience handling complex civil and commercial litigation matters in federal and state court at both the trial and appellate levels. Cassandra joins Yankwitt LLP from Kostelanetz & Fink LLP, where her practice focused on civil litigation, tax controversies, and white collar criminal defense.

Cassandra earned her J.D. from Brooklyn Law School, where she graduated magna cum laude. During law school, Cassandra was the Executive Notes and Comments Editor of the Brooklyn Law Review and a Fellow at Brooklyn Law School's Dennis J. Block Center for International Business Law. She also completed internships with the Eastern District of New York U.S. Attorney's Office, Civil Division, and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Yankwitt LLP is delighted to welcome Cassandra to the firm, and we encourage you to reach out to her or any of our other attorneys for assistance with your legal needs. More information about our practice and Cassandra's background is available on the firm website.
