

About Us

Yankwitt LLP is an elite trial and litigation firm, located in White Plains, New York. Our lawyers are prominent members of the Westchester and New York City bars, who utilize their vast experience to produce exceptional outcomes for our clients.

At Yankwitt LLP, we listen to our clients to understand how to best assist them and design unique litigation strategies for each matter. We are aggressive trial lawyers who are prepared to try cases in federal and state courts throughout New York and New Jersey, including the New York Supreme Court Commercial Division. As our clients' trusted advisors, we also counsel them when it is wiser and more economical to resolve claims before trial. We identify the optimum point at which to resolve matters and then tirelessly pursue the most favorable settlements possible.

We represent high-net-worth individuals and businesses in commercial disputes of all kinds. We handle complex matters in Westchester and throughout the New York metropolitan area on behalf of national law firms and serve as trial counsel for Westchester law firms on their high-stakes cases. We also serve as general counsel for several White Plains, New York City, and national businesses.

Yankwitt LLP is led by Russell Yankwitt, a former federal law clerk, big firm litigator, and Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, who has hired similarly trained and credentialed attorneys to create a trial team that rivals the most prominent New York City firms with the advantage of being able to charge Westchester prices.

While Yankwitt LLP and our attorneys boast an impressive list of honors, including Super Lawyers®, Best Lawyers®, Best Law Firms, AV Preeminent Ratings by Martindale-Hubbell, The National Law Journal's Elite Boutique Trailblazers, and others, the real honor is the repeat business and referrals we receive from our dedicated clients.
