

Law Firm Practice

Law Firm Practice: Protecting the Interests of our Peers

Yankwitt LLP represents and partners with law firms and lawyers throughout New York City, Westchester County, and the Lower Hudson Valley. From boutique practices to AmLaw 100 firms, we counsel legal professionals facing high-stakes litigation, internal crises, and reputational risk.

Firms and lawyers turn to us when their most critical matters devolve into messy litigation, and when their own reputations are on the line, and they need counsel they trust without hesitation.

Our Law Firm Practice is notable for its breadth of coverage and depth of experience. Comprised largely of former federal prosecutors and federal law clerks, Yankwitt LLP offers a rare combination of trial-ready litigation skill, investigative judgment, and discretion.

We routinely represent law firms in:

- Partnership and governance disputes
- Compensation and fiduciary duty cases related to partner withdrawals
- Defamation, fraud, and other tort actions
- Complex commercial litigation
- Insurance coverage matters

We also advise law firms facing difficult malpractice and fee disputes to ensure their interests are protected.

In addition, the firm provides sophisticated criminal defense representation to firms in crisis, partners with local firms seeking top-tier litigators to assist on their high-exposure matters and advises large New York City firms on best practices before our local Westchester judges.

Go-To Litigation Partner to Local and National Firms

National and New York City firms regularly partner with Yankwitt LLP because of our deep, practical insight into Westchester's federal and Commercial Division courts. We know the judges, their practices and judicial philosophies, and leverage that knowledge to provide strategic litigation advice to leading firms on their White Plains cases.

Our attorneys have clerked for many of the federal judges who preside over cases in White Plains, giving us firsthand knowledge of how those judges approach matters. Additionally, many of our New York partners are former Assistant U.S. Attorneys, who have knowledge that only comes from working inside the system. Our lawyers also regularly appear before these federal and Commercial Division judges in Westchester, allowing us to provide practical advantages for national and New York City firms and their clients.

Yankwitt LLP is recognized as Westchester County's go-to litigation partner for local and regional law firms across the Hudson Valley. We collaborate with firms seeking experienced trial lawyers to assist with complex commercial disputes and bet-the-company litigation in state and federal courts.

Yankwitt LLP seamlessly integrates with legal teams as litigation co-counsel, enabling our law firm colleagues to focus on their core areas of practice.

Local firms turn to Yankwitt LLP when a matter demands:

- Aggressive discovery strategies
- Sophisticated motion practice
- Powerful courtroom presence
- Elite trial teams
- Immediate courtroom credibility

Trusted for Sensitive Internal Investigations and Criminal Defense Matters

Yankwitt LLP is frequently entrusted with sensitive internal investigations and criminal defense matters. Clients rely on us when discretion, judgment, and speed are critical.

We regularly conduct internal investigations involving:

- Unauthorized disclosures of confidential information
- Whistleblower allegations of financial or accounting misconduct
- Cyber fraud and data security incidents targeting law firms
- Internal compliance, ethics, and governance issues

Our thorough investigations focus on uncovering the facts while protecting privilege, managing exposure, and safeguarding reputations.

Yankwitt LLP also represents law firms and individual lawyers facing government scrutiny. We are particularly well suited for matters involving overlapping criminal, civil, and regulatory exposure. Our former prosecutor perspective allows us to assess enforcement risk quickly, engage credibly with government agencies, and deliver clear, actionable guidance.

Recognized for Excellence

Yankwitt LLP's attorneys are consistently recognized by leading legal directories and publications, including Chambers USA, Benchmark Litigation, Legal 500, Best Lawyers, and Super Lawyers.

With Yankwitt LLP, clients receive the same pedigree and advocacy associated with elite New York City firms, combined with direct access to senior attorneys, personalized service, and a more competitive fee structure. For law firms seeking a reputable partner to handle their most sensitive and significant matters, Yankwitt LLP offers unmatched experience, discretion, and

Yankwitt LLP | White Plains, NY

t: 914-686-1500 | info@yankwitt.com | www.yankwitt.com

results.