

Philip J. Tullo

Associate

White Plains

philip@yankwitt.com

t: 914-686-1500

f: 914-487-5000

Overview

Philip is a litigation associate whose practice focuses on complex commercial matters. He joined Yankwitt LLP following a federal clerkship with Chief Judge Christopher B. Latham of the U.S. Southern District of California Bankruptcy Court, where he not only gained experience in bankruptcy matters but also handled litigation involving tax fraud, commercial real estate, family law and intellectual property. During his clerkship, Philip honed his analytical and legal writing skills as well as an in-depth understanding of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

Philip graduated magna cum laude from the Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University, where he served as Articles Editor of its Law Review.

Education

- Elisabeth Haub School of Law, J.D. magna cum laude
  - Pace Law Review, Articles Editor
- University at Buffalo Honors College, B.A.

Government Service

- Clerkship, Chief Judge Christopher B. Latham, U.S. Southern District of California Bankruptcy Court
- Externship, Chief Judge Cecelia Morris, U.S. Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Court

- Internship, Dutchess County Attorney's Office, Department of Community and Family Services

Admissions

---

New York

New Jersey