

Regional Footprint

With offices just steps away from the Westchester County courthouses in White Plains, New York, Yankwitt LLP handles cases throughout the state of New York, including Westchester and Rockland counties, the Hudson Valley, Long Island and New York City. Our attorneys are admitted to practice before the federal district and appellate courts throughout the region and have handled federal appellate cases in circuit courts around the country. In addition to our New York practice, Yankwitt LLP has offices in Atlantic City, New Jersey and handles civil litigation matters of all kinds in New Jersey state and federal courts.