Russell Yankwitt Appointed Chair of the Federal Bar Council Westchester Committee

Russell Yankwitt, Yankwitt LLP's managing partner, has been appointed chair of the Federal Bar Council's Westchester Committee, which he helped form in 2008 and led from 2008 to 2011. The Westchester Committee organizes programs and events of particular interest to those who live and/or practice in Westchester County and the surrounding areas.

"I am looking forward to discussing federal practice with attorneys who live and or work in Westchester and assisting with the Council's mission statement of encouraging respectful, cordial relations between the bench and bar," shared Russell.

Russell also serves on the Council's Executive Committee and as Vice President and holds multiple leadership positions within the Westchester County Bar Association.
