Russell Yankwitt Elected to the Business Council of Westchester Board of Directors

WHITE PLAINS, NY (October 29, 2021) – Russell Yankwitt, founder and managing partner of Westchester-based law firm Yankwitt LLP, has been elected to the Business Council of Westchester (BCW) board of directors.

“It is an honor and privilege to be selected to serve on such an important board and alongside some of the county’s most esteemed business leaders,” said Yankwitt. “I look forward to helping the BCW advance its goals of providing business networking, economic development and business advocacy opportunities for its members.”

Yankwitt also serves on the boards of the Legal Services of the Hudson Valley, Westchester County Bar Foundation, Westchester County Bar Association Grievance Committee and UJA Federation Westchester Business & Professional Division. He also serves in leadership positions as vice president of the Federal Bar Council, co-chair of the Westchester County Bar Associations’ Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee and is founder of the Federal Bar Council’s Westchester Committee.
