Russell Yankwitt Explains the Client Benefits of Retaining Credentialed Local Counsel in Westchester Magazine's Ask the Top Lawyer

The benefits of hiring credentialed local counsel are addressed by Russell Yankwitt, managing partner of Yankwitt LLP, in the Westchester Magazine Ask the Top Lawyer Q&A feature. The short answer is that the best and brightest attorneys with the “right” training acquire a skillset that provides clients with superior, cost-effective work product and creative problem solving for the most complex matters. Also important to successful outcomes in litigation is intimately knowing the local state and federal court rules and judiciary. Russell explains what has worked for him over the past 10-plus years since starting Yankwitt LLP and uses a specific case to demonstrate the benefit to his clients.
