

Sep 2022 | Firm News Press Releases

Yankwitt LLP Expands Litigation Team with Commercial Division Judicial Law Clerk Ryan Wintermute

Wintermute clerked for the Hon. Gretchen Walsh of the Westchester County Supreme Court, Commercial Division & Environmental Claims Part

White Plains, NY (September 12, 2022) – Yankwitt LLP, Westchester County’s go-to firm for high-stakes, bet-the-company litigation, has expanded its ranks again with the hiring of Ryan Wintermute as an associate. Wintermute joined Yankwitt LLP after completing a three-year clerkship with the Hon. Gretchen Walsh of the Westchester County Supreme Court, Commercial Division & Environmental Claims Part.

“We are thrilled to have Ryan join our ranks,” said Russell Yankwitt, founder and managing partner of Yankwitt LLP. “His experience in the Commercial Division gives him a robust understanding of New York state court practice, a deep familiarity with the judges in the White Plains state courthouse, and insight into how they assess cases – all of which benefit our clients and the firm.”

Wintermute earned his J.D. from Rutgers Law School (2019), where he was the Commentaries Editor of the Rutgers University Law Review. He is admitted to practice in New York and New Jersey.

About Yankwitt LLP

Founded in 2009, Yankwitt LLP is Westchester County’s go-to law firm for high-stakes and bet-the-company litigation. With one of the most experienced litigation teams in the county, Yankwitt LLP represents businesses and high-net-worth individuals across a broad range of matters. The firm also routinely handles complex cases in Westchester on behalf of national law firms and often serves as trial counsel for local law firms.