Yankwitt LLP Secures Favorable Settlement for Corporate Client in Breach of Contract Case

Yankwitt LLP successfully resolved a complex commercial dispute between its Fortune 500 client and a vendor involving claims of breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duty. Following an attempt to resolve the dispute prior to litigation, Yankwitt LLP initiated arbitration proceedings seeking $1.5 million in damages.

Yankwitt LLP adopted a strategic, assertive approach throughout the document discovery process to secure an optimal settlement prior to its client incurring the significant cost of depositions. The firm's discovery tactics resulted in a settlement that far exceeded the offer during the mediation that preceded discovery.

This outstanding outcome underscores the firm's unwavering commitment to crafting aggressive, cost-effective litigation strategies that maximize the client's business goals. We accomplish this by leveraging the firm's trial experience to achieve favorable settlements at the optimal point in litigation.
