Yankwitt LLP Wins Business Council of Westchester Small Business Success Award

Russell Yankwitt and Yankwitt LLP honored at the awards dinner on April 25, 2023

White Plains, New York (May 1, 2023) — Yankwitt LLP, Westchester County's go-law firm for high-stakes, bet-the-company litigation, was awarded the coveted Business Council of Westchester Hall of Fame Award for Small Business Success.

The firm was among six award winners, including Entrepreneurial Success, Family Business Success, Minority Business Success, Women in Business Success, and the Chairman's Recognition Award presented at the BCW's annual Hall of Fame event on Tuesday, April 25, 2023, at the Glen Island Harbour Club in New Rochelle.

"The honor was especially meaningful to me," said Russell Yankwitt, Managing Partner. "We will be celebrating our 14th anniversary in a few months, and to be recognized for our success by such a well-respected organization further validates that we have achieved our goal of creating Westchester's law firm for high-stakes litigation."

Exclusively staffed with senior attorneys who trained at the most prestigious New York City law firms and served as federal prosecutors and/or federal law clerks, Yankwitt LLP is the only New York firm of its kind outside of Manhattan. The firm has built a reputation as the referral firm of choice for the country's top firms based on its consistent ability to deliver legal representation commensurate with the most prestigious New York City law firms at more competitive Westchester prices.

About Yankwitt LLP
